

Although we cannot see you,

We feel your presence near.

We will hold you close in memory,

Till we drop our very last tear.

So dance beyond those golden gates,

And join your loving husband.

We'll see you when we are sleeping,

And pray for you to come.

Until that day we'll close our eyes,

and see your smiling face.

We'll lock you up inside our hearts,

Until we again embrace.

So rest now our beautiful Mother, Mother in law and Nan.

We'll never forget how much you have done.

*So until our hands meets yours
again,*

Sleep now in the sun.
