There isn't a day that passes by, when i don't think of you, or have a tear in my eye.

Because both of you were taken from us in such a painful way, that you did not deserve, nor did you have a say.

but your strength and your bravery shone from the start, passed down onto us, within us, now a part.

we face each day braver, from the end to the start,

gone from our lives, but both forever in our hearts.

Pauline and John,

Parents, Guardians, Angels.
